LENTELLS STUDIES OF THE NEW GMS CONTRACT FOR GP'S RAISED EXTRA FUNDING FOR THEIR CLIENTS

When the new GMS contract was introduced in 2004, Lentells were involved in carrying out detailed reviews for all their doctor clients to make sure they were all being paid the correct amounts by the Primary Care Trust. The Lentells team found that many of their clients had been paid incorrectly in the past. They entered into detailed negotiations with the Financial Director of the Primary Care Trust with the result that several of their clients received backdated extra payments of up to £15,000 per annum.
