

CASE HISTORY

LENTELLS SUPPORT PROVIDES THE CATALYST FOR SELF EMPLOYED CRAFTSMAN TO BUILD A SUBSTANTIAL BUSINESS

A long standing client of Lentells faced the classic dilemma. He was deliberately keeping his business small – selling only his own labour - to avoid becoming embroiled in the headaches of VAT and PAYE. Lentells believed the client had the talent and the ability to build a substantial business. So the Lentells team offered to run the whole financial function, allowing the craftsman to concentrate on building his business. As the business grew, the craftsman's turnover went through the VAT threshold. Then, with Lentells encouragement, he began to build his team, with Lentells handling the PAYE, advising on appropriate salary levels, and advising on year-on-year pay increases. The business is now thriving, and the profit level is well in excess of the VAT threshold.
